

Find and Match the Animal

	jellyfish - Portugese man o' war (find me in case 1!)
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------

	giant African millipede (find me in case 3!)
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------

	starfish (find me in case 4!)
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------

	crocodile (find me in case 7!)
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------

	Atlantic green turtle (find me on the wall near case 7!)
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------

	short-tailed python skeleton (find me in case 7!)
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------

	hummingbird (find me in case 6!)
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------

	pangolin (find me in case 9!)
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------

	echidna (find me in case 8!)
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------

	porpoise skeleton (find me in case 8!)
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------

can dislocate its jaws so its mouth can open wide can sting

has wings

can echolocate - use sound to find food has long claws

makes a nasty chemical on its skin

can regrow its arms

lays hard eggs that don't dry out has scales

can pull its head into its shell